"I AM NOT OLD."

BY PARK BENJAMIN.

I am not old—though years have cast
Their shadows on my day;
I am not old—though youth has passed
On rapid wings away;
For in my heart a fountain flows,
And round it pleasant thoughts repose,
And sympathies and feelings high
Spring like stars on evening's sky.

I am not old—Time may have set
His signet on my brow,
And some faint furrows there have met,
Which care may deepen now;
Yet Love, fond love a chaplet weaves
Of fresh young buds and verdant leaves,
And still I fancy, I can twine
Thoughts sweet as flowers that once were mine.

I am not old—the snowy tinge
That's fallen on my hair,
What is it but a silver fringe
That makes the head more fair!
Sad contrast, may be, to the brown
Which used to deck my early crown;
But, let the senile tokens stay,
No impulse of my soul is gray.

I am not old—though I must leave
This earth and be at rest;
Soon, very soon, I will but grieve
For those whom Love lover best.
What though this fragile frame shall fade
In Age's cold and glo my shade,
I shall regain the light, and be
Youthful in immortality.

PHILOPENA.

We believe this pleasant amusement for boys and girls, and sometimes those of more mature age, originated in Germany, where it was called viel liebchen, which as spoken has the sound of philipken; which may have been the origin of the word, to which we have given a Latin termination, pena, because it infers a penalty or forfeiture exacted or won by the tact or management of the winning party. With us the thing is managed, however, excessively clumsy, and without skill. A person in company chances to find a double-meated almond, and hands the half meat to another, and says, or rather should say: "Will you eat a philopena with me?"—The other may say: "I am afraid," and refuse or may accept one of the nuts, and eat it, at the same time the challenging party eats the other. Thus they separate, but when they meet again the one that can think to say "philopena" first to the other wins the forfeit, and has a right to name where it shall be. Generally, among children, some trifle, or, among young folks, some little present, suitable to the condition of the parties. Thus, a young lady who wins a philopena of a gentleman, may immediately add, "I wear No. 6½ kids." If the parties meet in the street, the lady may say, "O, yes, I see you notice my parasol is getting old. Well, then, I accept." But the gentleman must never allude to her want of an article, but exercise his judgment as to what would be acceptable. Generally, in our haste to win a philopena, we forget propriety, and become rude in this land of thrift and hurry. The thing is far better and more pleasantly managed in Germany, and calls into exercise some of the most useful faculties of the mind. When a couple meet the next time after eating a philopena together, no advantage is taken of the other until one of them pronounces the word "Philopena." This is the warning that the sport is to begin. Let us suppose that a gentleman calls upon a lady; she invites him to walk in, but at the same time speaks the talismanic word. If he accepts the offer to walk in, he is lost, unless she removes the ban by telling him to go away. If she asks him to take off his hat, he must resolutely keep it on; or if at a table she should hand him any article which he accepts, she wins the forfeit. At the same time, he is watching to catch her off her guard—for the acceptance of any offer from the other ends the game. Both are constantly exercising their wits to prevent being caught, and the sport often goes on all the evening. Perhaps the gentleman brings a little present saying, "Knowing that I should lose my philopena, I have brought it along—here it is." If she is caught off her guard by this smooth speech, she loses, for he immediately claims a forfeit. If neither wins at first meeting, the sport is continued at the second; and it may happen that half a dozen parties meet at the same time, all anxious to win of their philopena partners, so that the scene often becomes ludicrously amusing.

How preferable is this German play to our own! And as the sport derived from philopena is very innocent and pretty, we commend it to the young folks of America.

The "Poison Wind."

A Russian nobleman, who has been traveling in Africa, gives the following account of the Samieli, Simoon, or poison Wind, which is such an object of interest and terror to all classes and all nations.—He says: The Samieli is felt in the Desert from about the middle of June to the 21st of September. It is experienced with a very violent south west wind, and on those days when the heat of the sun is most ardent. It is burning; it comes in gusts more or less scorching, of more or less duration; each of them, however, even the shortest, exceeds the time that a man could hold his breath. This wind consists in a succession of burning and cool gusts. In the first, there is frequently a double degree of heat and impetuosity. The difference between the hot and cold gusts, according to my observation, is from 7 to 10 degrees. The highest degree of the hot gusts was 73 deg. of Farenheit; the temperature in the sun, without the Samieli, having been constantly from 53 deg. to 57 deg. I thought I could observe that when this wind blows, a yellowish tinge, inclining to livid, is diffused through the atmosphere; and that, in its most violent periods, the sun becomes of a deep red. Its odor is infectious and sulphureous; it is thick and heavy, and when its heat increases, it almost causes suffocation. It occasioned a pretty copious perspiration, partly excited by the uneasiness which one feels, and the difficulty with which one breaths, on account of its fœtid quality. This perspiration appears to me more dense and viscious than the natural perspiration; the wind itself deposits an unctuous fluid. The better to examine its qualities and its nature, I opened my mouth to inhale it; the palate and throat were instantly scorched. It produced the same effect when I inhaled through the nostrils, but more slowly. To preserve one's self from it, and keep the perspiration more free, it is usual to wrap up the face with a handkerchief. In passing the tissue it losses a part of its action and of its destructive principle, and besides the breath keeps up a degree of humidity, and hinders the burning air from suddenly penetrating into the mouth and lungs.—The Arabs, therefore, are accustomed, whatever the heat may be, even in the shade, to wrap the whole body, not excepting the head, in their meselah, (cloak,) if they desire to sleep. This wind causes, by the rarification that attends it, a pretty strong agitation in the blood; and this increased movement soon brings on weakness. It in general produces on man two effects distinctly characterized. It strikes him mortally with a kind of asphyxy, or causes him a great debility. The corpse of a person so suffocated has this peculiarity, that in a few days, or even hours, as some Arabs affirm, the limbs separate at the joints with the slightest effort, so powerful is the action of the poison on the muscular parts, giving astonishing activity to the progress of putrefaction. Such a corpse is reported contagious. I know nothing so terrible as this wind; some interruptions, one of which was for three days and three nights successively. My interpreter, Mr. Rossel, was struck by it, but escaped death by a discharge of blood. That which confirms what I have said of the separation of the limbs, is, that, having been struck by this air, I was affected for some weeks with an extreme weakness; and whenever the least warm wind blew on me, I felt great faintness, and perceived in my joints a relaxation of the muscles.

The dangers of this wind are guarded against by inhaling the fumes of good vinegar, and covering the face with the handkerchief. I asked the Arabs if lying down on the ground was preservative against it; they assured me it was not. I should be inclined myself to think it prejudicial.

CABBAGE AND DITTO.—We have just heard a cabbage story, which we will cook up for our laughter loving readers.

'Oh! I loves you like anything,' said a young countryman to his sweetheart, warmly pressing her hand.

'Ditto,' said she gently returning the pressure.

The ardent lover, not happening to be over and above learned, was sorely puzzled to understand the meaning of ditto, but was ashamed to expose his ignorance by asking the girl. He went home, and the next day being at work in the cabbage yard with his father, he spoke out—

'Daddy, what's the meaning of ditto?'

'Why,' said the old man, 'this here is one cabbage-head, ain't it?'

'Yes, Daddy.'

'Well, that are's ditto.'

'Rot that good for-nothin' gal!' ejaculated the indignant son, 'she called me cabbage-head, and I'll be darned to damnation if ever I go to see her again.'

The Hermit of the Mountain.

Wilburn Waters, the hermit of Pond Mountains, in the White Top region of Virginia, has killed four bears within the last three weeks, one of them exceedingly large. The Abigdon Virginian says of this singular man:

'For more than twenty years he has lived alone in the solitude of that vast mountain regioe, devoting his time to hunting and stock-raising. He claims, we believe, to be a half-breed of the Catawba tribe, and is a man of great physical power. He owns about one thousand acres of land, and raises and sells large numbers of cattle and hogs, and takes vast quantities of wild honey. Although he lives entirely alone, the latch-string of his cabin is always out, and nothing seems to be more grateful to his feelings than the dispensation of his hospitalities. But, poor man, he now has no latch-string or cabin. During a few days' absence, four weeks ago, he returned to find his home a bank of ashes, and all that his house contained consumed. When we were there, last week, he had built a fire upon the spot where his domicil stood, and we partook of his hospitalities upon a log, in the open air. Since his residence upon the Pond Mountain he has captured 86 bears, 36 wolves, and upwards of 300 deer, and a countless number of wild turkeys and the varmints of the hills. He is forty-six years old, has lived about half that time at his present locality, and has never been at Abingdon but twice, though only thirty miles from it.

Opinions of Distinguished Business Men.

"ADVERTISE YOUR BUSINESS. Do not hide your light under a bushel. Whatever your calling or occupation may be, if it needs support from the public, advertise it thoroughly and efficiently in some shape or other that will arrest public attention. I freely confess that what success I have had in life may fairly be attributed more to the public press than to nearly all other causes combined. There may possibly be occupations that do not require advertising, but I cannot well conceive what they are.—P. T. BARNUM.

"I have always considered Advertising—liberally and long—to be the great medium of success in business, and the prelude to wealth. And I have made it an invariable rule, too, to advertise in the dullest times, a long experience having taught me that many thus spent is well laid out; as by keeping my business continually before the public, has secured many sales that I otherwise would have lost."—STEPHEN GIRARD.

"Whatever success I may have had in business I owe mainly to continuous Advertising, and I deem it good policy to advertise long in the same papers. From a close observation, I am fully convinced that it is impossible to make much headway in any branch of commerce, without the facilities which the Press alone can give."—JACOB RIDGEWAY.

"My motto through life has been—work and Advertise. In business, advertising is the true Philosopher's stone, that turns whatever it touches to gold. I have advertised much, both in the weekly as well as in the daily papers; nor have I found that those of the largest circulation, of either class, benefitted me the most."—JOHN JACOB ASTOR.

"Advertise! advertise! advertise! This is the life of trade, and standing advertisments, you will find, will prove the most renumerative, at least I have found it so during my business career thus far; for should you withdraw a single week from the paper in which you are accustomed to advertise, ten to one that would be the time when some would-be new customers will look into the paper for your business address, and not finding it, you will lose several profitable sales.'—WILLIAM GRAY

Mr. Meagher's Apostrophe to Gold.

We are confident that our readers will peruse with interest the following sketch of that portion of Mr. Meagher's eloquent lecture, in which he apostrophizes the "filthy lucre." It is too noble to be lost, but it is not superior to the elevated and glowing tenor of his whole discourse:

"Gold, which has caused many a brain to ache, has blistered many a hand, broken many a heart, has wounded many a soaring soul, and, clinging to it, has brought it to the dust; gold, which has bought the integrity of the statesman, and led his wisdom captive; gold, which has silenced the toague of the orator, and bought the flatteries of the poet; gold, for which, in the gay saloons of fashion, many a fair and noble girl has plighted the vow which has consigned her life to bitterness, and locked upon her radient neck the snake that swells her veins with venom; gold, which has stolen into the councils of the struggling nation, has bred dissensions among her chiefs, has broken the seal of her sacred secrets, has forced the gates of her strongest citadels, has bought the evidences which hurried her apostles to the scaffold, has bought the votes which made over her inheritance to others, and her glory to a strange people; gold, which has led the traitor to the garden, and with a kiss betrayed the Redeemer of the world; gold, which in so many shapes has stepped with a stealthy tread or rioted amongst men—which has been the fever, the madness, the despair,—has been in turns, and in quick succession, the spy, the swindler the perjurer, the assassin—the foe of innocence, the blight of beauty, the bane of genius; gold has become a fountain of life and joy and freedom—the serpent has been transferred into a blossomed wand. Lucifer has become the morning star. To you the citizens of America, it must be pleasing, indeed, to behold a new Republic rising up to share with you the labors and glories of a future, before which the conceit of the Old World shall be humbled and in the light of which humanity shall grow strong."

Gold in Western Arizona.

J. D. Austin, Esq., of the El Paso and Fort Yuma Wagon-Road Commission, writes under the date of October 2, 1858, from Fort Yuma, as follows:

"Near our old camp, and about fifteen miles above this place, a gold mine has been discovered, directly on the road, which is represented as being exceedingly rich. People are flocking to it from all quarters, and numbers of emigrants en route for California have stopped there. All the men who leave our expedition are bound to this new gold discovery. I sent a Mr. Kent, of our company, who is a reliable man, and has spent seven years in the California mines, to prospect the locality for me. He reports that the prospect is good, and that the miners are making from $5 to $25 per day. The distance from the diggings to the mines is from half a mile to a mile. The gold is found in lumps and is readily washed. I have as yet seen no dust; and, indeed, no very small particles from this region.—Mr. Kent has a brother with us, who will accompany the expedition to San Diego, and then return to the mines. The two brothers are New York farmers, in good circumstances, and they consider this a favorable opportunity to better their fortunes."

Mr. Austin has charge of this commission, which consists of 12 6-mule teams and fifty men, and left the valley of the Rio Grande in August. Its object was to increase the water facilities of the route, and improve the condition of the road between El Paso and Fort Yuma. The expedition arrived at the Western terminus of the road, Fort Yuma, on the 1st of October, and on the 3d started for San Diego, where the property will be sold and the commission closed. The gentleman appointed to superintend the work being injured by an accident, which occurred just before leaving the Rio Grande, the duty of his post fell on to Mr. Austin, who was next in command. He has discharged it, apparently, in a very satisfactory manner, and is expected home in December, proximo. He will return by the isthmian route.—Washington Star.

Flatfooted Courtship.

One long summer afternoon there came to Mr. Davidson's the most curious specimen of an old bachelor the world ever heard of. He was old, gray, wrinkled and odd. He hated woman, especially old maids, and wasn't afraid to say so. He and Aunt Patty had it hot and heavy whenever chance threw them together; yet still he came, and it was noticed that Aunt Patty took unusual pains with her dress whenever he was expected. One day the contest waged unusually strong—Aunt Patty left him in disgust and went out into the garden. "The bear!" she muttered to herself, as she stooped to gather a blossom which attracted her attention.

'What did you run away for?' said a gruff voice close to her side.

'To get rid of you.'

'You didn't do it, did you?'

'No; you are worse than a burdock bur.'

'You won't get rid of me, neither.'

'I won't, eh?'

'Only in one way.'

'And that?'

'Marry me!'

'What, us two fools get married?—What will people say?'

'That's nothing to us. Come, say yes or no; I'm in a hurry.'

'Well, no, then.'

'Very well, good-by. I shan't come again.'

'Stop a bit—what a pucker to be in!'

'Yes or no?'

'I must consult—'

'All right; I thought you was of age. Good-by.'

'Jabez Andrews, don't be a fool. Come back; come back, I say. Why, I believe the critter has taken me for earnest. Jabes Andrews, I'll consider—'

'I don't want no considering. I'm gone. Becky Hastings is waiting for me. I thought I'd give you the first chance. All right. Good-by.'

'Jabeb—Jabes! That stuck-up Becky Hastings shan't have him if I die for it. Jabes—Yes. Do you hear?—Yes!'

WOMEN STRONGER THAN OXEN.—It is related of a certain New England divine who flourished not many years ago, and whose matrimonial relations are supposed to be of the most agreeable kind, that, one Sabbath morning while reading to his congregation the parable of the supper, in Luke XIV, in which occurs this passage: "And another said I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them. I pray thee to have me excused, and another said I have married a wife, and therefore cannot come," he suddenly paused at the end this verse, drew on his spectacles and looking around on his hearers said with emphasis: "The fact is brethren, one woman can draw a man further from the kingdom of heaven than five yoke of oxen.

SCARLETINA AND MEASLES.—As this is the season of the year at which the above diseases are the most prevalent in this part of the country, and in so many cases baffle the skill of our best physcians, we give the following remedy which we find in a late number of the Scientific American, hoping that we may thereby aid in relieving the suffering. The paper referred to, which, by the way, is in all cases reliable, states that Mr. Witt, a Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, has published a pamphlet in which he states that bicarbonate of ammonia is a specific for the cure of scarlet fever and measles. He cites Dr. Peart, of Liverpool, and other practitioners, who have never lost a case out of hundreds, since adopting this remedy. Two drachms of the bicarbonate of ammonia are dissolved in five ounces of water, and two tablespoonfuls of the solution given every two, three, or four hours, according to the urgency of the symptoms. No acid drink must be taken, but only water, or toast and water. The system is to be moved by a dose of calomel if necessary. The room must be well ventilated, but the patient protected from the slightest cold or draft. Gargles should also be employed for clearing the throat. The ammonia seems to counteract the poison which causes scarletina, and also acts on the system by diminishing the frequency and at the same time increasing the strength of the pulse. We do not pretend to understand medicine, and therefore give the above remedy as we find it, leaving it with our physicians to form an estimate of its value, and give it a trial if they think it worthy.

AGAIN.—A few days since we were the recipient of another favor from those liberal publishers, Messrs. T. B. Peterson & Brothers, of Philadelphia, in the shape of a copy of Miss Fredrica Bremer's last work, entitled "THE FOUR SISTERS." We have not had time to peruse it, but we are willing to take the word of Robert Morris, as to its merits. He says "it is in the best style of its charming authoress. We are sure that every lover of a pure and healthy literature will welcome this translation by Mary Howitt, of this last story of the gentle and amiable Swedish authoress. The purity of the writings of Miss Bremer, their sympathetic power, and the excellent morals which she ever inculcates, renders her novels welcome to the family circle. They teach patience, affection and endurance in such a manner as to improve and gratify every mind. The style is glowing, the sentiments are pure, and the Four Sisters may be read with pleasure as well as profit by all classess of society.—We specially recommend it as a story which it will do any one good to read. The price of it is but $1.25, and copies of it will be sent, free of postage to any one, by the publishers, T. B. Peterson & Brothers, on sending that amount to them in a letter."

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE.—This popular Lady's Magazine will be greatly improved for 1859. It will contain nearly 1000 pages; from 25 to 30 steel plates; and about 800 wood engravings. MRS. ANN S. STEPHENS, author of "Fashion and Famine," and CHARLES J. PETERSON, author of "Kate Aylesford," are its Editors, and write exclusively for it. Each will give a new Novelet next year; and they will be assisted by all the best female writers. "Peterson's Magazine" is indispensible to every lady. Its Fashions are always the latest and prettiest; its steel Engravings magnificent; its Patterns for the Work-Table, its Household Receipts, &c., almost countless. The price is but TWO DOLLARS a year, or a dollar less than Magazines of its class. It is the Magazine for the times. To Clubs it is cheaper still; viz: three copies for $5, or eight for $10; with a splendid premium to the person getting up the Club. Specimens sent gratis. Address Chas. J. Peterson. 306 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

THE GOULDY FAMILY.—From a telegraphic dispatch in the Harrisburg Telegraph, we learn that Mrs. Gouldy has so far recovered from her wounds as to be considered out of danger. Mr. Gouldy is also in a fair way for recovery. One of the wounds upon his head has entirely healed, but the others are still very sore. The brain protrudes to the size of a walnut, but the attending physicians confidently assert that he will finally be restored to health. Mr. Gouldy has not yet been informed of the suicide of his son. Young Nathaniel is convalescent, being able to sit up in bed and converse. Charles is also better, but makes slow progress. The servent girl Murphy is still in the New York Hospital, where every attention is paid to her. The doctors believe she will recover.

Our readers will remember that this is the family so brutally attacked by the eldest son, who afterwards committed suicide, of which we gave an account some time since, as happening in New York City.

PACIFIC RAILROAD.—An exchange says that a petition has been prepared, and is in circulation for signatures, praying Congress to provide for the construction of a double track Railroad from the Atlantic to the Pacific, with a collateral telegraph,—"the work to be done by ten distinct companies, in as many sections, each being paid in shares of one hundred millions of dollars as its work may be done. No lands are to be given; none but American iron and other materials of American manufacture must be used;—the fare for through passengers must never exceed three-fourths of a cent per mile; and the whole work must be completed within five years. For the construction of a road upon these conditions, the petitioners say they will ever pray." We think it will require a great many long prayers to effect the passage of such a bill, and double as many more, and twice as long, to build the road after the bill has passed.

☞ On the 13th ult., the publishers of the Atlantic Monthly issued in book form, the "Autocrat of the Breakfast Table," written by Oliver Wendell Holmes. The inimitable articles composing this work were furnished by the author and published in the magazine above named, and from the general reading they have had, it would be surperfluous for us to say any thing in praise of the "Autocrat." No contributions to Magazines, either in England or America, have ever attained such instant and universal popularity. They have hit the public at a point where all men agree; and it is because they are full of the nature that makes all men kin.—The work is bound in one volume of 350 pages, in handsome style, with characteristic illustrations. Price $1. Phillips, Sampson & Co., Boston.

AMERICAN ENTERPRISE.—No race of people under the sun possess the spirit of enterprise to be found among the people of the United States, and especially those of the New England States. Lieut. Strain says that in crossing the plains from Mendoza to San Luis, in South America, he met an intelligent American, who had crossed the Andes and pushed his way thus far into the unfrequented regions of the South. The reader, with Lieut. Strain, will readily suppose that science had led an enthusiastic votary to undertake this distant tour into the semi-civilized regions, and his astonishment will not be greater than the Lieutenant's, when he found that the traveller was an agent for an American patent medicine.

HEAVY VERDICT.—We learn from the Pittsburgh True Press, that in a case just finished in the Court of Common Pleas of Westmoreland county, there has been a heavy verdict given against the Pennsylvania Rail Road Company. The case was brought by an employee of the road, for injuries received from some carelessness of some of the other hands on the train—his leg being smashed. The case was tried by Gen. William A. Stokes, in his usual able manner, for the Company; and by Hon. H. D. Foster, for the Plaintiff. After a protracted, wearisome sitting of some days, the case was ended by a verdict for the Plaintiff, against the Company, for $5,775.

The rest of the watch is entirely of wood, including the case.

☞ The seat of Life.—M. Brown Sepuard, in a recent lecture before the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons, London, stated that he had found a spot in the brain, not larger than the head of a pin, which if merely touched by a foreign body, produces death as insaantaneously as if the individual had been struck by lightning.

☞ A wide-a-wake lady.—A lady was detected, a few days since, pocketing a package of gloves in a store in Cincinnati. When charged with the theft, she burst into tears and tendered a $20 bill in payment. The merchant took but $5, and gave her $15 in change. On counting the cash at night, that $20 bill was found to be a counterfeit. "Phancy the pheelinks" of that store-keeper.

"HASHEESH" EATING AT PRINCETON COLLEGE—ATTEMPTED SUICIDE OF A STUDENT.—A correspondent of the Newark Advertiser, writing from Princeton, N J., under date of the 24th inst., says:

"A tremendous excitement was created here last night by the announcement that a member of the Senior Club, Mr. C. B., had made an attempt to hang himself. He had a few days before perused the famous work of Ludlow, entitled 'The Aasheesh Eater,' and yesterday afternoon, notwithstanding the persuasions of his friends to the contrary, determined to experiment with this dangerous drug. Of a delicate constitution, the quantity he swallowed, although within that prescribed by the author of the work, was productive of the most injurious results. Escaping from two of his class mates while under its influence, and imagining, as he himself states since his recovery, that he had been sentenced to be hung and appointed his own executioner, he endeavored with his neckerchief to carry out this insane project, and would probably have accomplished this purpose, had not the aforementioned persons, who were searching for him, discovered the body before respiration had entirely ceased.

He was conveyed to his room, and through the exertions of Dr. J. S. Schenck, who was promptly on the spot, soon restored.

HONOR TO THE BRAVE.—Lieut. General Scott is about to be the recipient of a beautiful present from the Scott Legion of Philadelphia. It consists of a guilt frame, over three feet high by nearly three feet wide, richly embellished with carving and filagree work, and contains the certificate of membership of Lieut. Gen. Scott in the Legion. The plate is lithographed and printed in colors. On the top is a likeness of Gen. Scott in a medallion, draped with two American flags and two regimental flags bearing the arms of Pennsylvania. On each side, on a pedestal, is a member of the Legion, in the blue uniform worn in Mexico, one standing at a "rest" and the other at "support arms." The pedestal contain the names of the principle battles fought in Mexico. Tapering up along each side of the plate are two palmetto trees, colored true to nature, and at the bottom are bunches of the prickly pear of Mexico. The bottom of the plate contains a representation of the Scott Legion monument in Glenwood Cemetery, and in the back-ground appears a battle scene, the storming of the Castle of Chapultepec. The certificate is filled up with the name of the General in a very neat style of penmanship, and is signed by the officers of the Legion.

A DESTRUCTIVE TORNADO.—The Paulding (Mississippi) Clarion says that a very violent and destructive hurricane passed over a portion of that county, on Wednesday of last week. It struck in its course, the residence of Josiah Moody, where its effects exceeded in horror any thing that the imagination can conceive or the pen portray. The place was swept as with a bosom of destruction, every house on the premises was taken up and scattered in pieces to the four winds, and, what is far more distressing to relate Mr. Moody himself, and eight other members of his family were killed and several more severely wounded. Out of fourteen persons in the place but one—Mr. Jackson, the son-in-law of Mr. Moody—escaped entirely uninjured.—Mr. Moody was a minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and a school teacher. The dwelling destroyed was newly built of heavy green logs.

☞ A Test of Spiritualism was recently made at New Bedford, Mass., which we commend to the believers in the "new revelation." The son of Mr. Wade was supposed to be lost with a wrecked ship some years ago. The father, a full believer in the truth of mediumship between mortals and immortals, enjoyed communications with the spirit of his loved and lost son. The son, through a medium, informed him that he "was happy among the saints, and that a crown of glory was in reserve for himself." Mr. W., however, was "taken all aback" a few days since by the arrival of his son in the form of flesh and blood, and his relation of wondrous escapes by field and flood.—The medium mizzled.

Fight with a Bear in the Water.

Passengers by the Port Huron boats describe the killing of a large bear in the neighborhood of that place, a day or two since, in peculiar manner. A man who lives on the St. Clair river side had occasion to cross the St. Clair river early in the morning, and on the way across discovered a large bear, who was engaged in the same mission as himself, viz. endeavoring to gain her Majesty's dominions. He immediately made for the animal, and, being able to make better headway through the water, soon overtook him, and struck him on the head with one of his oars, having no other weapon. The bear turned on him, with the utmost coolness commenced climbing into the boat, the man in the mean time belaboring his skull with the oar with all his might. The assailing party by this time found that he had caught a Tartar, and that he was likely to become the captured party himself. This apprehension was rendered nearly a certainty by the capsizing of the boat just as his bearship had nearly accomplished loading himself into it. The man, now thoroughly frightened, found himself in the water, clinging to one side of the boat, with the bear looking at him over the inverted bottom from the other side. He then made a desperate effort, righted the boat, ducked the bear and got in again, but was no sooner aboard than the bear made another rush at him and upset the boat again. A lively scene of floundering followed, which were fast bringing matters to a crisis, when the battle was ended by the arrival of another man in a boat, who had witnessed the fight from the shore, and come off to the assistance of the first adventurer. He split the bear's head open with an axe, killing him instantly. The animal weighed over 400 pounds. —Detroit Free Press.

MAIL CARRIERS IN THE NORTH WEST.—During the winter months, while all lake and river travel are suspended, the U. S. Mails are carried by Indians and half-breeds between Detroit, Mich., and the Lake Superior towns. The labors of these men are of the severest character. Over the ice and snows, through swamps and tangled forest trails, they wend their way; sometimes packing the mail, with the provisions for their trip, or, as they style it, voyage, upon their back—at others, driving it before them on sleds drawn by trained dogs. In this way they traverse the country for hundreds of miles through the frost and storms of winter, sleeping where night finds them, and deeming themselves specially fortunate if they can make their beds in the bosom of a deep snow bank. Their life is certainly one of great hardship, yet it would be difficult to make them regard it in any such light. It is said that they can accomplish almost incredible distances in a single day upon their snow shoes.

BRIGHAM YOUNG.—Among the curious developments of the stoppage of a banking house in the City of Washington, recently, is the fact that Brigham comes out minus about $10,000, having been a confiding depositor to that extent, through the agency of the territorial delegate, who transacted his financial matters in this quarter. It seems, with all Brigham's devotion to Mormonism, he thought it as well to provide for a wet day elsewhere, and hence has been omulating some other rulers, who made investments at a distance from the scene of threatened or impending revolution. In this case, however, fate ruled adversely to the sensual speculator, and he has to mourn the loss of both principle and interest Brigham will become even more disgusted with a government which has fenced in his domination in Utah, and allowed bankers to fob his honest earnings, right under the respectable nose of the President

INDIANA.—The Legislature of Indiana has decided by conclusive majorities in either House, that the pretended election, two years ago, of Messrs. Bright and Fitch to the United States Senate, was a fraud and a nullity, and that those gentlemen are not Senators from Indiana. An election is, of course, to follow immediately. We understand that the Hon. Henry S. Lane (Republican) and the Hon. John G. Davis (Anti-Lecompton Democrat) will be chosen. Mr. Lane was in Congress (the House) several years ago, and held a high rank there. Mr. Davis is the present member from the Terre Haute District, re-elected to the next House by a very large majority. We do not hear what Messrs. Bright and Fifth will do in the premises, but presume they will try to hold on. In that case, an exciting contest is inevitable.—N. Y. Tribune.

BLOODY MASSACRE.—In the engagement between the reactionist forces and those of Vidaurri in Mexico, 400 of the latter's men were captured by the former, who, after seeing them disarmed and taking from them their most valuable equipments, ordered his second in command to take them from his sight and do with them as he thought fit. This inhuman wretch, who well knew what would ensue from such a course, placed them in the hands of his soldiery, who were just then in a beastly state of intoxication. They fell upon the captives, who were entirely defenceless, and a horrible massacre followed. At the end of the terrible scene, the lifeless bodies of four hundred human beings were found stretched upon the ground, mangled and weltering in their blood, a patient sacrifice to the holy cause of liberty.

PRIZE CORRESPONDENCE.

The affidavit of Mr. WILSON, given below must silence scepticism with regard to the honesty of some lottery proprietors. This gentleman has versified the adage, "better be born lucky than rich."

☞ Private letters received from Nebraska state that Col. Samuel W. Black, one of the Supreme Judges of that Territory, was dangerously wounded with a gun in the hands of a friend, a few days since. It appears, that accompanied by another gentleman, he was out hunting on the prairie, and coming into a clump of bushes with a view of driving some prairie fowl from their cover, his comrade, who did not observe his approach, discharged his gun full in the face in consequence of the first load—a heavy charge of buck shot—taking effect in the head, and the second in the arm, inflicting two severe, though we are happy to state, not dangerous wounds. At last accounts the Colonel was rapidly recovering, and his speedy return to convalescence was confidently looked for.

SWINE ON THEIR MUSCLE.—They had a pig fight in Cincinnati last week, which was witnessed by two or three hundred persons, and was conducted in so spirited a manner as to excite universal admiration. They fought like two brave pigs, long and well, and had evidently been trained in school of porcine pugilists, for they had mind, skill, pluck and bottom.—One was christened Morrissey, and the other Heenan, and after fighting more than an hour, Morrissey bowed his tail, thus acknowledging himself vanquished.

THE LIVER INVIGORATOR
PREPARED BY DR. ASHFORD,
COMPOUNDED ENTIRELY FROM GUMS,

is one of the best Purgative and Liver Medicines now before the public, that acts as a Cathartic, easier, milder and more effectual than any other medicine known. It is not only a Cathartic, but a Liver remedy, acting first on the Liver to eject its morbid matter, then on the stomach and bowels to carry off that matter, thus accomplishing two purposes effectually, without any of the painful feelings experienced in the operations of most Cathartics. It strengthens the system at the same time that it purges it; and when taken daily in moderate doses, will strengthen and build it up with unusual rapidity.

The LIVER is one of the principal regulators of the human body; and when it performs its functions well, the powers of the system are fully developed. The stomach is almost entirely dependent on the healthy action of the Liver for the proper performance of its functions; when the stomach is at fault, the bowels are at fault, and the whole system suffers in consequence of one organ—the LIVER—having ceased to be its duty. For the diseases of that organ, one of the proprietors has made it his study, in a practice of more than twenty years, to find some remedy wherewith to counteract the many derangements to which it is liable.

To prove that this remedy is at last found, any person troubled with LIVER COMPLAINTS, in any of its forms, has but to try a bottle, and conviction is certain.

These Gums remove all the morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, making food to digest well, PURIFYING THE BLOOD, giving tone and energy, removing the cause and RADICAL CURE.

Bilious Attacks are CURED, AND, WHAT IS SERVE, PREVENTED, by the occasional use of the LIVER INVIGORATOR.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents Nightmare.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently, and cures COSTIVENESS.

One dose taken after each meal will cure Dyspepsia

☞ One dose of two teaspoonful will always relieve SICK HEADACHE.

One bottle taken for female obstruction removes the cause of the disease, and makes a perfect cure.

Only one dose immediately relieves Cholic, while Only one bottle is a sure cure for CHOLERA OF CHOLERA.

One dose often repeated needed to throw out of the MORBUS, and a preventive system after a long sickness.

☞ Only one bottle is effects of medicine.

☞ One bottle taken for JAUNDICE removes all sallowness or unnatural color from the skin.

One dose taken a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite, and makes the food digest well.

One dose often repeated cures Chronic Diarrhœa in its worst forms, while Summer and Bowel complaints yield almost to the first dose.

One or two doses cures attacks caused by Worms in children: there is no surer, safer, or speedier remedy in the world, as it never fails,

A few bottles cures Dropsy by exciting the absorbents.

We take pleasure in recommending the medicine as a preventive for Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, and all Fevers of a Bilious type, it operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony to its favor.

☞ Mix Water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

THE LIVER INVIGORATOR
IS A SCIENTIFIC MEDICAL DISCOVERY, and is daily working cures, almost too great to believe. OUR DIRECTORY.—Owing to a press of busi-ss, our "Directory," in the first column, on e first page, was not attended to as it should ve been, but we have this week made all cor-ctions, and added somewhat thereto which we agined would be of interest, and now refer r readers to it as a perfect "Directory" in ery particular, except the Mail Schedule, ich has not yet been corrected by the P. O. partment, but hope it will be previous to the ue of our next number.

P. S.—Since writing the above, we have re-ived the following schedule of arrival and close mails at this Station:—

Way mail East closes at 6.30 A. M., and is ried by the Express Train which leaves this ation at 7.10. The same train brings a rough mail from Pittsburg to this place.

Way mail West closes at 8.00 A. M., and is ried by the Express Train which leaves this ation at 8.55. The same train brings a rough mail from Philadelphia and Harris-rg to this place.

Eastern Through Mail closes at 11.00 A. M. d is carried by the Mail Train which leaves is station at 11.50. The same train brings a y mail from Pittsburg to this place.

Way Mail from the East arrives by the mail in at 6.35 P. M.

Hollidaysburg Mail closes at 11 A. M., and P. M., and arrives at 11.30 A. M., and 6.30 M.

By this arrangement, Altoona has the benefit two mails a day from East and West, viz:—through mail from Pittsburg and west by the press Train in the morning and a way mail the Mail Train at noon; a through mail m Philadelphia and Harrisburg by the Ex-ss at 8.30 in the morning and a way mail by e Mail Train at 7.00 in the evening. Those o wish their communications to go through speedily as possible should pay attention to is arrangement.

NEW TRIAL REFUSED.—In the case of the mmonwealth vs. John Krigor, who was con-cted of larceny, (in breaking into Squire Cher-'s shop and taking a number of watches in ly,) at the October term of the Quarter Ses-ons of this county, the motion for a new trial ade by his counsel, Calvin and Banks, was gued at the Argument Court, last week,—he evidence on which the deft. was convicted s entirely circumstantial,—the finding of a rew, that was evidently taken from a door ading into the shop, on his person—being the rongest fact against him. His counsel argued at the testimony was not sufficient to convict so grave a charge. The Court, after an ar-ument by Calvin for the motion and Hall ainst it, refused to grant the new trial, and ntenced the deft. to eighteen months confine-ent in the Western Penitentiary. When will eople learn that "honesty is the best policy." heriff Funk accompanied Krigor over the ountain, on Tuesday last. This is the Sher-'s first official visit to the smoky city, but he ould have many more, if all the men who de-rve a term in the "institution" out there, had eir just deserts.

A FINE DESCRIPTION OF MOUNTAIN SCENERY.—Col. Wallace, of the Philadelphia Bulletin, assed through here last week to attend the ittsburg celebration. In a description of his avels he gives the following fine description f the scenery between here and Pittsburg:

"As the train twisted around the curves, on e ascent of the Alleghenies the cold increased, d the track soon lay over a spectral waste of ow. The trees were laden with a white shroud, d deep down the yawning valleys spread the me gleaming covering. As the scenes on ther hand grew wilder and gloomier, the range and ghostly appearance of Nature would ve frighted the ghost of Mrs. Radcliffe, tho' e had seen the grandeur and gloom of the Ap-ennines unmoved. Snelly has a poem called Glaster; or, The Spirit of Solitude,' but the fenced desolation of these snowy mountain-ds would have sent the lonely hero of the em shuddering back to the abodes of men, d he would thank the august stars for human untenances and human voices. It was awful ter the dark, spirit-like rush of the locomotive rough the mountain fastnesses, no sound would eak the silence save the icy rush of some eezing mountain torrent. To be lost in such olitude would be drearier than death."

A MERITED COMPLIMENT.—In the Philadel-ia Evening Bulletin, of Monday last, we find e following complimentary notice taken of one the best Conductors that ever sung out "All oard.".

It was, however pleasure to see that the con-uctor—Mr. O. M. Irvine—who had made the ip out remarkably pleasant for us, was to ring us back to Eleventh and Market streets gain. Railroad men are generally pleasant eople, for their intercourse with thousands of ravellers brings out the virtues of urbanity, ay manners and decision, and we, in compa-y with other Eastern reporters, owed much of e pleasure of our trip to the instinctive cour-esy of Mr. Irvine, under whose charge the 'fast line" is a decidedly agreeable institution.

GREAT RAILWAY ROUTE. The journey from Philadelphia to Chicago by the Pennsylvania Central and Pittsburg and Fort Wayne Rail-oad, now occupies but thirty-six hours; and ut one change of cars, at Pittsburg, is neces-ary. We understand in a few days such ar-angements will be effected as to render even his change unnecessary, and this route will hen form the longest and most complete uninterrupted railway route in the world.—Harris-burg Telegraph.

ERROR.—In noticing the earnings of the Pa. ail Road, for the month of October, in our last number, we stated, on the authority of Philadelphia Bulletin, that the gross earnings were $66,700,39 less than for the same month in 1857, when it should have read greater. The expenses for the month of October, this year, were $11,880 68 greater than for the same month last year, making the actual increase of net earnings for last month $59,819 71. The whole gross earnings from Jan. 1, 1858, were $3,811 92, less than in same period of 1857, but the expenses having been curtailed $240,736 75, the road shows a clear net gain over the same period of 1857, of $235,921 83.

TO THE AUTHORITIES.—We have been request-ed by a number of persons, to call the attention of the Borough Council to the matter of passing an Ordinance requiring every property-holder or the occupant thereof, to remove the snow from the side-walks in front of his or her resi-dence. Whilst every thoughtful citizen consid-ers it his duty to remove the snow and ice from his side-walk, without being forced to do so by an Ordinance, there are many who either thro' negligence, or wilfully, permit it to remain, much to the annoyance and danger of pedestri-ans, who can only be induced to remove it by the passage of an Ordinance peremptorily re-quiring it. Where snow is permitted to remain upon the sidling pavements of the town, the boys are immediately upon it with their sleds, and in less than half a day it is converted into a perfect sheet of ice, rendering ascent or de-scent, to ladies especially, exceedingly danger-ous. A decision bearing upon this point was made in the Superior Court in Boston, last week, by Chief Justice Allen, in the case of Samuel Strouss vs. City of Boston, an action to recover damages for personal injuries received from falling upon an icy sidewalk in Pinckney street. The jury came in for instructions upon the point whether an icy sidewalk should be considered a defect, and the Court ruled that the City was bound to keep the sidewalks in as good a con-dition in the winter as in the summer. Verdict for the plaintiff, $1000 damage. We hope some action may speedily be taken on this sug-gestion. No one could find fault with the Coun-cil for passing such an Ordinance, while many good citizens would bestow hearty thanks, and the Borough might be saved a bill for damages.

NEW OFFICER.—On the 1st inst., the office of Superintendent of the Middle Division of the Penn'a Rail Road passed into the hands of Jno. B. Anderson, Esq., formerly of the New Albany and Salem Rail Road. Mr. A. enjoys the repu-tation of being one of the best railroad men in the country, and his experience in the business warrants the conclusion that under his care the Middle Division will be skillfully managed; and the high character of the Penn's Central R. R., the greatest road in the country, will be fully sustained. We welcome him to our midst, and hope that his duties and location may prove agreeable.

We are pleased to know that the retiring of-ficer, Thos. P. Sargent, Esq., will still remain in the office in this place. We should be sorry to loose so valuable a citizen. While occupying the position of Superintendent he discharged his duties faithfully, and won the respect and esteem of all with whom he was brought in con-nection.

ALTOONA, Nov. 29/1858.

At a meeting of the members of the Altoona Brass Band, held this evening, the following preamble and resolution were unanimously adopted:—

WHEREAS, The Altoona Brass Band was en-gaged by the employees of the Penna. Rail Road Company, at Pittsburgh, to participate in celebrating the Centennial Anniversary of the capture of Fort Duquesne, at that City, on the 25th of November, 1858, therefore

Resolved, That a vote of thanks be hereby tendered by the members of the Band to the Committee of Arrangements of the Employees of the Pa. R. R. Co., for the comfortable quar-ters provided for us, the good treatment we re-ceived at their hands, and the untiring interest they manifested in contributing to our pleasure and comfort during the day.

AND. CLABAUGH, Leader.

NEW STEAM FLOUR MILL.—A few days since we were made the recipient of a sack of flour, manufactured at the steam mill in this place, which came very opportune, as our better-half had found the bottom of the last barrel in the house. The bread made therefrom was of a good quality, although the flour was not as good as is generally turned out at the mill. In mak-ing flour from mixed wheat, purchased by the car load, it is impossible to turn out the best article in all cases. With good wheat and a little more regulation of machinery, we believe the steam mill can produce flour equal to any ever brought to the town. We have heard those who purchase flour at the mill recommend it very highly.

THE PENN'A RAIL ROAD AHEAD.—From the following statement of the receipts of the four great central Railroads of this country, for the month of October 1858, as compared with the same month in 1857, together with the length of each Road, it will be seen that the Penn's Central Road is far ahead in the amount of re-ceipts per mile:—

RECEIPTS IN DOLLARS AND CENTS.

	1858	1857	Increase	Decrease
Penn's Railroad,	463,004 66	396,994 17	66,700 39

Balt. & Ohio,	392,503 02	396,191 85		3,688 83

LENGTH OF ROADS IN MILES.

Penn's Rail Road, 354 miles.
N. Y. Central. Main stem 298—Syracuse to Niagara 171—total 469 miles.
New York & Erie, 459 miles.
Baltimore & Ohio, Main stem 379—Washington Branch 39 total 418 miles.

NEW STOPPING PLACE.—Blair Furnace, some three miles below this station, has been made a stopping place for the Mail train, when the proper signal is given by those wishing to get on at that point, or notice given to the conductor by those wishing to get off. This will be a great convenience to persons residing in that community, also to those wishing to visit in that section.

☞ In our notice of the charge of schedule, published last week, an inverted figure made us say that the Fast Line East arrived at this sta-tion at 6.50—it should have read 9.50. The lay over from 6.50 to 10.10, (three hours) would hardly prove agreeable to passengers who con-sider that train the fastest on the road.

HOW TO GAIN SITUATIONS.—There is one de-sirable feature of the Iron City College, and one we believe peculiar to it, which we must not pass unnoticed—it makes itself an express, and a very efficient agent in procuring situations and occupations for such as it qualifies to hold them.—Hunts Merchants' Magazine.

ELECTION.—An election will be held on Sat-urday, the 18th day of December, for the pur-pose of electing a Brigade Inspector for this Brigade, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Maj. John C. Innes.

☞ "A Friend to Improvement" writes thus:— WILTON, N. H., Sept. 10, 1857.

Having had an opportunity to test the value of Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, I am prepared to say, that it fully makes good its recommendations, by restoring to more than its original lustre, hair that has become gray, or faded from age or disease. It will give the hair a soft and pliable texture, and what is of still greater importance than that, it is restored to health; it imparts to the whole system its renovating, healing properties, and has a ten-dency to restore health and prolong life, and give to the aged the appearance of youth. Its unequalled properties ought to recommend it to every family. Try it ye who labor under any disease of the head, and you will never have to regret its application.

CAUTION.—Beware of worthless imitations, as several are already in the market, called by dif-ferent names. Use none unless the words (Pro-fessor Wood's Hair Restorative, Depot St. Louis Mo., and New York,) are blown in the bottle.—Sold by all Druggists and Patent Medicine dealers, also by all Fancy and Toilet Goods dealers in the United States and Canada.

SINGULAR PROVIDENCE.—Some two or three weeks ago, Mr. B. G. Eaton, a very worthy citi-zen of this place, accidently ran a splinter into one of his hands, but at the time paid no atten-tion to it. It soon grew painful, however, and became worse and worse until mortification su-pervened, when dropsy also manifested itself, and in some fourteen days after the occurrence first mentioned he died. He was aged about 55 years; his death occurring on the night of the 25th instant. His illness elicited a lively sym-pathy on the part of his neighbors and acquain-tances, and many mourn his departure.—Register.

THE PANIC—MORE FAILURES.—The panic in New York seems to be on the increase. In this city everything goes on smoothly, and the only failures we have heard of were the failures to furnish good fits made by some inferior clothing establishments. There is no such difficulty to be encountered by those who patronize the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wil-son, Nos. 603 and 605 Chesnut street, above sixth. Gentlemen and Youths never fail to pro-cure capital fits at this popular establishment.

THE BEST COUGH MEDICINE.—One of the very best Cough Medicines to be found any-where, is Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup, sold by G. W. Kessler, at 50 cents per bottle.

☞ See advertisement of Dr. Sandford's LIVER INVIGORATOR in another column.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor.

In all diseases inflammation more or less predominates—now to allay inflammation strikes at the root of disease—hence an immediate cure.

DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR, and nothing else, will allay inflammation at once, and make a certain cure.

DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR will cure the following among a great catalogue of diseases: Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Chafes, Sore Nipples, Corns, Bunions, Bruises, Sprains, Bites, Poison, Chilblains, Biles, Scrofula, Ulcers, Fever Sores, Felons, Ear Ache, Piles, Sore Eyes, Gout, Swellings, Rheumatism, Scald Head, Salt Rheum, Baldness, Erysipelas, Ringworm, Barbers' Itch, Small Pox, Measles, Rash, &c., &c.

To some it may appear incredulous that so many diseases should be reached by one article; such an idea will vanish when reflection points to the fact, that the salve is a com-bination of ingredients, each and every one applying a per-fect antidote to its opposite disorder.

DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR In its effects is magical, because the time is so short be-tween disease and a permanent cure; and it is an extrac-tor, as it draws all disease out of the affected part, leaving nature as perfect as before the injury. It is scarcely ne-cessary to say that no house, work-shop, or manufactory should be one moment without it.

No Pain Extractor is genuine unless the box has upon it a steel plate engraving, with the name of Henry Dalley, Manufacturer.

Sold by G. W. Kessler, Altoona; George A. Jacobs, Holl-idaysburg; and by all the Druggists and patent medicine dealers throughout the United States and Canadas.

THE GLOBE—THE OFFICIAL PA-PER OF CONGRESS.—I shall publish the Daily Globe, and the Congressional Globe and Appendix during the next session of Congress. The Daily Globe will con-tain a report of the debates in both branches of Congress as taken down by reporters equal, at least, to any corps of short hand writers in this or any other country. When the debates of a day do not make more than 45 columns, they shall appear in the Daily Globe of the next morning, which will contain also, the news of the day, together with such editorial articles as may be suggested by passing events.

The Congressional Globe and Appendix will contain a report of all the debates in Congress, revised by the speak-ers, the Messages of the President of the United States, the Annual Reports of the Heads of the Executive Depart-ments, the Reports of Committees of Congress on important subjects of general interest, the Laws passed during the session, and copious indexes to all. They will be printed on a double royal sheet, in book form royal quarto size, each number containing 16 pages averaging 2367 words per page. The whole will make between 1700 and 2000 pages. It is believed that no book has ever been published at so low a rate. Last year I advertised in the Daily Globe, for six months, and in about one hundred other newspapers in the U. S., a reward of $225 to be paid to any person who would produce a book published at so low a rate, and none was produced. The large number of copies subscribed for by Congress enables me to afford the debates to subscri-bers so cheap.

The Congressional Globe and Appendix pass free through the mails of the United States, as will be seen by reading the following Joint Resolution passed by Congress the 6th of August, 1852:

Joint Resolution providing for the distribution of the laws of Congress and debates therein.

With a view to the cheap circulation of the laws of Con-gress and the debates contributing to the true interpreta-tion thereof, and to make free the communication between the representative and constituent bodies.

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representa-tives of the United States of America in Congress, assem-bled. That from and after the present session of Congress, the Congressional Globe and Appendix, which contain the laws and debates thereon, shall pass free through the mails so long as the same shall be published by order of Con-gress; Provided, That nothing herein shall be construed to authorize the circulation of the Daily Globe free of post-age.

Approved; August 6th, 1852.

TERMS:

For a copy of the Daily Globe four months,	$3 00
For a copy for a less time (per month)	1 00

Nov. 25, 1858-3t. A. MCCORMICK.

MORE THAN 500,000 BOTTLES SOLD IN THE NEW ENGLAND STATES IN ONE YEAR.

The Restorative of Prof. O. J. Wood for Restoring hair perfectly and permanently, has never yet had a rival, vol-ume after volume might be given from all parts of the world and from the most intelligent to prove that it is a perfect Restorative; but read the circular and you cannot doubt; read also the following.

☞ The Hair.—People have for centuries been afflicted with bald heads and the only remedy, heretofore known, has been those abominable wigs. By a recent discovery of Professor Wood these articles are being fast dispensed with, but a great many persons still patronize them, because they have been so often imposed upon by Hair Tonics of different kinds. To all such persons we earnestly make the request, that they will try once again, for in Wood's Restorative there is no such thing as fail. We know of a lady who was bald, who used the article a short time, and her head is now covered completely with the tiniest and most beautiful curls imaginable. We know of numerous cases where hair was rapidly falling out, which it restored in greater perfection than it ever had been before.

It is also without doubt one of the best articles for keep-ing the hair in good condition, making it soft and glossy, removing dandruff, and has proved itself the greatest ene-my to all the ills that hair is heir to.

It is the duty of every one to improve their personal ap-pearance though some may differ in regard to the ways of doing it; but every one will admit that a beautiful head of hair, either in man or woman, is an object much to be de-sired, and there are no means that should be left untried to obtain such a consideration.—Woman's Advocate, Phila.

Coshocton, Ohio, Nov. 17, 1856.

O. J. WOOD & CO.—Gents: As I have been engaged in selling your Hair Restorative the last season for one of your local agents (R. M. Hackinson,) and having experi-enced the beneficial effects of it, myself, I would like to ob-tain an agency for the State of Ohio or some State in the West, should you wish to make such an arrangement, as I am convinced there is nothing equal to it in the United States, for restoring the hair. I have been engaged in the Drug business for several years, and have sold various prepara-tions for the hair, but have found nothing that restores the secretive organs or invigorates the scalp as well as yours, being fully convinced that your restorative is what you represent it to be, I would like to engage in the sale of it, for I am satisfied it must sell. Yours truly.

S. T. STOCKMAN.

Wayland, Mass., Feb. 5, 1857.

PROF. O. J. WOOD & CO.—Gents: Having realised the good effects of your Hair Restorative, I wish to state, that finding my hair growing thin, as well as gray, I was in-duced from what I read and heard, to try the article pre-pared by you, to promote its growth and change its color as it was in youth, both of which it has effected complete-ly. In the operation I have used nearly three bottles.

Yours &c., JAMES FRANCIS.

BOERHAVE'S

HOLLAND BITTERS

THE CELEBRATED HOLLAND REMEDY FOR

DYSPEPSIA,

DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS,

LIVER COMPLAINT,

WEAKNESS OF ANY KIND

FEVER AND AGUE,

And the various affections consequent upon a disordered

STOMACH OR LIVER,

Such as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach, Colicky Pains, Heartburn, Loss of Appetite, Despondency, Costiveness, Blind and Bleeding Piles. In all Nervous, Rheumatic and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure.

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Boerhave: Because of its great success in the most of the European States, its introduction into the United States was intended more especially for those of our fatherland scattered here and there over the face of this mighty country. Meeting with great success among them, I now offer it to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medical virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Gene-rally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

CAUTION.—The great popularity of this delightful Aro-ma has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing. Be not persuaded to buy any-thing else until you have given Boerhave's Holland Bitters a fair trial. One bottle will convince you how infinitely superior it is to all these imitations.

HAMMONTON LANDS NEW ENGLAND SETTLEMENT.—RARE OPPORTUNITY.

To all wanting Farms in a healthy place, twenty-five miles from Philadelphia, on the Camden and Atlantic railroad, New Jersey. An old estate has recently been opened for sale, and the first division of 10,000 acres divided up into farms of twenty acres and upwards. The soil is of the best quality for the production of fruits, grains, &c. The price is $15 to $20 per acre, payable in easy quarter yearly instalments, within a term of four years, with interest. The terms are made easy, in order to insure the rapid improvement of the land, by enabling every industrious man to buy a farm. It is now being extensively improved by good roads, and some of the best citizens from New England and the Middle States are erecting large improvements. It is a scene of the greatest improvement out of Philadelphia.—Seventy-five houses have been built in four months. Practical farmers and business men from the length and breadth of the Union are settling there. It is an important business place, on account of its being in the midst of a great market. Every article raised upon this land finds an immediate sale. The water is excellent, and no such thing as fever is known.

The soil is a sandy or clay loam, with a clay bottom and retentive of manures. It is free of stones and easily worked. It abounds largely in the phosphates, and such is its fertility that from the crops produced both upon old and upon the large area adjoining of new cultivation, it will be found not to be excelled anywhere in the production of crops most adapted to its market.

The reader may be well aware that the earliest and the best fruits and vegetables come from New Jersey, which are annually exported to the amount of millions of dollars. The land, besides being accessible in every way for fertilizers, has an abundant supply of the best quality of muck manure.

Lumber and building materials can be had on the spot at a cheap price, from the mills. Other mills are now being opened, and brickyards being started on the ground. A person can put up a frame tenement for present convenience for one hundred dollars. On account of the extensive emigration, this is the best course to pursue in order to get a place to live in at first. Carpenters and builders are on hand to put up houses on the best terms.

In settling here the emigrant has many advantages. He is within a few hours' ride of the great cities of the Middle States and New England; he is near his old friends and associations; he is in a settled country, where every improvement and comfort of civilization is at hand; he is in a healthy place, and is not subject to the certainty of losing the greater part of his family and his own health by those malignant fevers which are the graves of so many in the West of the young and and hardy in the far off regions away from home and friends. Besides, he has a mild climate and an open winter.

There are three trains daily to Philadelphia, and to all those who improve the railroad company gives a free ticket.

The reader will at once be struck with the advantages here presented, and ask himself why the property has not been taken up before. The reason is, it was never thrown in the market; and unless these statements were correct no one would be invited to examine the land before purchasing. This all are expected to do. They will see the land under cultivation; they will meet persons, no doubt, from their own neighborhood; they will witness the improvements, and can judge of the character of the population. Persons should come prepared to purchase, as many are locating, and locations are not held on refusal.

The Hammonton Farmer, a monthly Literary and Agricultural sheet, containing full information of Hammonton' will be sent to each enquirer, and can be obtained at 25 cts per annum.

Title indisputable. Warrantee deeds given, clear of all incumbrance, when purchase money is paid. Route to the land:—Leave Vine street wharf, Philadelphia, for Hammonton, by railroad, at 7½ A. M., and 3½ P. M.; when there inquire for Mr. Byrnes. Boarding conveniences will be found. Letters and applications can be addressed to D. S. COUGHLIN, 202 South FIFTH Street, below Walnut, Philadelphia. Maps and information cheerfully furnished.

I intend to keep such an assortment that I shall at all times be able to supply my customers with whatever they may need, and I intend also to sell at prices which will make it a saving to those who patronize my store.

SUFFERING HUMANITY, READ THIS.—The undersigned takes this method of informing the public generally that there is no medicine now offered to the public that is equal to DR. VALK'S GALVANIC OIL in relieving suffering humanity.

I was an observer of its effects on a friend of mine, who suffered almost everything from a neuralgic affection which resisted the best medical treatment in Centre county. We applied freely the Galvanic Oil to the painful part, and gave some inwardly, and in 20 minutes the patient was asleep, and when awakened was free from pain and continued so. This is a positive fact which I am willing to make good at any time. A case of Nelon was cured in nearly the same length of time.

GREAT IMPROVEMENT IN COOKING STOVES.

CONSUMPTION OF SMOKE AND GAS AND SAVING OF FUEL.

The subscriber takes pleasure in offering to the public a NEW GAS AND SMOKE CONSUMING

Cooking Stove, recently patented, which is destined to supercede all others, as it requires

ONE-THIRD LESS FUEL

than other stoves and is more easily, quickly and regularly heated. No unpleasant smell of gas arises from this stove from the fact that it is all consumed ere it can escape. There is no trouble from smoke as that unpleasant and often annoying exhalation is also consumed inside of the stove Neither is there any danger of flues or chimneys becoming clogged with soot or the mortar loosened by the gas arising from coal fires.

Persons wishing to purchase stoves are invited to call at the store of the subscriber, in the Masonic Temple, and examine the above stoves.

GREAT DISCOVERY OF THE AGE IMPORTANT TO TOBACCO CHEWERS.

DR. GUSTAV LINNARD'S TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES, the great Substitute for Tobacco.

It is a well known and incontrovertable fact that the use of Tobacco is the promoting cause of many of the most severe—to which the race of man is subject, as careful analysis and long and painful experience have clearly proven that it contains certain narcotic and poisonous properties most dangerous in their effects, which by entering into the blood derange the functions and operations of the heart, causing many to suppose that organ to be seriously diseased.

MENTAL AND PHYSICAL DISORDERS

TOBACCO affects also the entire nervous system, manifesting itself—as all who have ever used the noxious weed will bear testimony—in Lassitude, Nervous Irritability, Water Brash, Dyspepsia, and many other disorders of a similar character.

THE TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES

Are designed to counteract these baneful influences, and have proved completely successful in a multitude of cases, and wherever used. Being harmless in themselves they exert a beneficial effect upon the entire system, restoring the Taste which has become vitiated or destroyed by great indulgence, completely removing the irritation and accompanying tickling sensation of the Throat—which are always consequent upon abstaining from the use of Tobacco, and by giving a healthy tone to the Stomach, invigorate the whole system.

Persons who are irretrievably undermining their constitutions and shortening their lives, should use these Troches immediately and throw off the injurious and unpleasant habit of Tobacco Chewing.

These Troches of Lozenges are put up in a convenient and portable form at the low price of 50 Cents per Box. A liberal discount to the Trade.

Prepared solely by the undersigned to whom all orders should be addressed.

INTENSE EXCITEMENT!—McCORMICK'S NEW GOODS HAVE ARRIVED AND ARE NOW BEING OPENED FOR INSPECTION AND SALE.

"Halloo, neighbor, I'm here on the ground again. Perhaps you recollect when I, last year, asked you to hold my horse a moment and tell me where the CHEAP STORE was. But it is different now. It reminds me a little of the campaign of 1840, when Gen. Harrison was elected President. You have only to go with the crowd and you will have no difficulty in finding McCORMICK'S STORE. From the excitement down the valley, and the quantity of goods I see carried away, they must be selling off very rapidly and very cheap."

"You are right, my friend; I would say to you, sir, go ahead and your anticipations will be fully realized. He has a very large and well selected assortment of Goods. He'll sell you a dress for fifty cents and give the trimmings into the bargain, I'm told, and all other goods in proportion."
